Southern Cypress Manufacturers Association Elects Officers

PITTSBURGH, April 13, 2017 – Members of the Southern Cypress Manufacturers Association (SCMA) elected officers for 2017 at the association’s Annual Meeting on March 22, in Charleston, South Carolina.

Stephen Logue, Battle Lumber Company, Wadley, Georgia, was elected president. Logue currently serves as operations manager of dry kilns at Battle Lumber Company, and is responsible for domestic sales, as well as export sales to Europe, the Middle East, South America, and Vietnam.

Mark Tuck, Gates Milling, Gatesville, North Carolina, was elected vice president. With nearly three decades in the wood products industry, Tuck currently serves as president of Gates Milling. He and his wife, Nancy, are the company’s owners.

The Southern Cypress Manufacturers Association is a non-profit organization dedicated to the promotion of cypress building products to trade professionals and consumers. For more information on the SCMA, visit www.CypressInfo.org.
